2. Referees

The home team is responsible to provide a certified referee to officiate their home games. If unable to find a certified referee, then the host team must contact their scheduled opponent to work out an appropriate solution.

3. Rugby Rules

- KICK OFF at 3:30 (unless a double-header is scheduled – KO then becomes 3:00)
- 30 minutes halves
- Unlimited substitutions
- ALL PLAYERS MUST HAVE A MOUTHGUARD!
- For more specific rules, please refer to the International Rugby Board (I.R.B.)’s rules for this age group - <http://www.irb.com/Laws/>

4. Red Cards/Inappropriate Conduct

All red cards must be reported to the league coordinator along with the description of the incident from preferably the referee, and the head coach from each team. Any inappropriate behavior/conduct by a player or fan should be brought to the attention of the other team’s coach.

5. Playing with less than a full Side

If a coach realizes that they may not be able to field a full 15-man side, then they must contact the other coach to explain the circumstances. Upon mutual agreement, then the teams can play either 13 aside (no flankers) or 12 aside (no back-row). If a mutual agreement amongst the coaches can not be worked out, then the team with the incomplete side would lose by forfeit 5 -0.

7. Tie Breakers formula

Most Wins / Head to Head / Least amount of points allowed / Total points scored / Coin Toss

Best wishes for a successful season...
